Sue Lewis shows no surprise, but didn't Kent Van Dyk put on the wrong hat this morning?

Cheerleaders lead the fans in pre-game yells at the roaring bonfire.

SPQR plays for the successful homecoming dance, "Light My Fire."

During homecoming week the whole school participated in a flurry of activities. On Green and Gold Day everyone wore school colors. Girls were auctioned off on Slave Day. Michael Ballieu won the Mr. Irresistible Contest. For "Sock it to Blaine" Day socks without shoes were worn. Queen Bev Brann reigned over Friday's activities: the serpentine, pep assembly, bonfire, game, and dance.

Barbi Lewis freaks out amid the spooky decor of the cafetorium.

Majorettes and the band keep the spirit alive with their half-time show, "Don't Bug Me."

Juniors Present "Murder Takes the Veil"

Carol Case, Carlene Haan, Arlene Nieuwsma, Laurie Haveman, Marc Likkel, Cindy Taylor, Lynn Bosman, Megen Williams, Kathy Van Winkle, Onalee Polinder, Linda Maberry, Jeanne Brown, Shirley Fullner, and Marlene Benson receive last minute instructions from Director Carl Cary.

Shirley Fullner, Carlene Haan, Linda Maberry, Kathy Van Winkle, Carol Case, Laurie Haveman, Claudia Menser, Marlene Benson, and Jeanne Brown watch, while Lynn Bosman gets a lecture from her father, Mike Frazier.

Murderer Bill Ronhaar struggles with Megen Williams while the cowardly Cindy Taylor crawls out of danger.

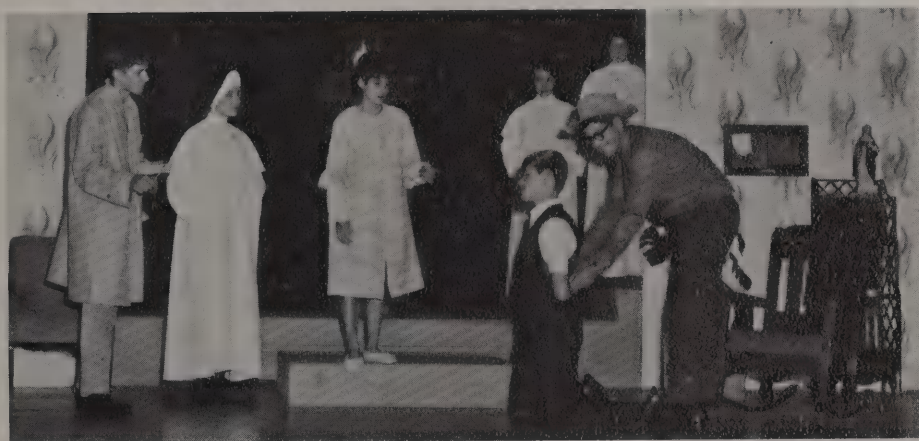

The clutch of death. (Bill Ronhaar and Megen Williams).

Marc Likkel, Jamie Entrikin, Chuck LeCocq, and Bill Ronhaar listen spellbound as the "churn man" Terry Maier tells about a murder.

Sheriff John Meenk, Mother Superior Shirley Fullner, and nuns Jeanne Brown and Helen Harkoff watch as the apprehended Bill Ronhaar is held by deputy Dave Louws.

Linda Bovenkamp directs traffic while Dan Hardin, Brian Longstreth, and Mark Servid move furniture.

MURDER TAKES THE VEIL, a three act murder mystery, was presented in November by the junior class under the direction of Mr. Carl Cary. The action takes place at a convent school and centers around the murder of a student.

Jamie Entrikin rehearses lines with stagehands Claudia Menser, Brian Longstreth, and Mark Servid.

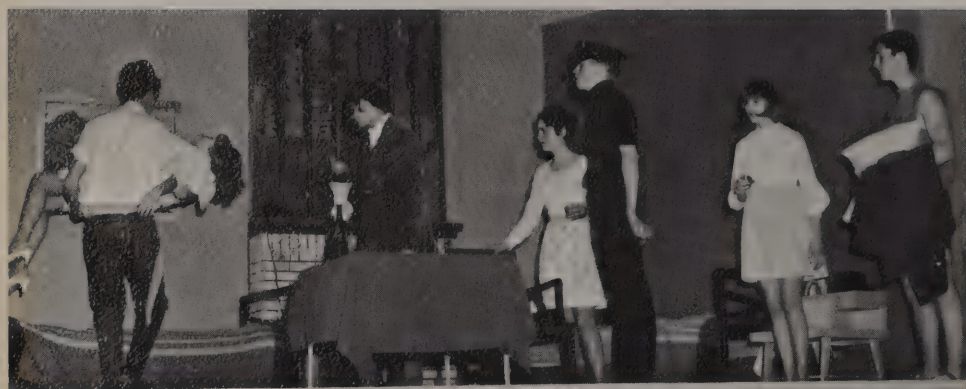

Unaware of an informal curtain call are LaDonna Arneson, Jed Langstraat, Diane Dubbs, Dave Petitt, Barbi Lewis, Mike Ballieu, Brad Jones, Fred Vander Werff, Janna Remington, Bev Brann, Steve Erdmann, Jack Rickenbacker, Greg Parcher, Dan Noteboom, Ronn Wood, John Zuidmeer, Rod Veleke, Jerry Kok.

"Well one of us has to close the window!" decide Ruth (Janna Remington) and Eileen (Bev Brann). Offering to close it for them are John Zuidmeer and Rod Veleke. Above Right: Ruth's typing is frequently interrupted by the Wreck's (Dave Petitt) conversation and the telephone.

Ruth and Eileen foresee an exciting stay in their apartment. Their dinner is interrupted by a doorman (Larry Van Werven), a former tenant (Diane Dubbs), a reporter (Steve Erdmann), a policeman (Jerry Kok), and a football star (Dave Petitt). Right: Director Carl Cary criticizes the cast's performance in a dress rehearsal.

"La congal La congal!" shout the admirals while the girls try to dance them out of the room.

The Portuguese admiral introduces himself to Eileen, Ruth, and their father while the newlywed couple looks on.

"How can you ask me to leave at a time like this?" asks the landlord (Mike Ballieu) of his tenant Eileen.

Seniors Present "My Sister Eileen"

As the workman (John Zuidmeer) casually tears down the girls apartment, the landlord, the father and girls stare in dismay.

"GET UP AND GO" CAST—Top Row: Claudia Menser, Connie Blankers, Terri Doornenbal, Sherry Eiman, Larry Powers, Jani Robins, Greg Parcher, Fred Youngs, Dan Hardin, Tim Krahn. Second Row: Ronn Wood, Cathy Tremaine, Kathy Ronhaar, Jed Langstraat, Megen Williams, Nancy Tilton, Jola Stephenson, Anne Taylor. Third Row: Mike Lange, Jim Swimburnson, David Farmer. Bill Ronhaar, Linda Bovenkamp, Jenny Shuler, Lynn Bosman.

A crusty old bachelor (Ron Wood) and a spinster (Cathy Tremaine) find love is not really dead.

"We have lemonade and orangeade and limeade over ice," sings Greg Parcher.

Teachers fall in love, too. (Jed Langstraat and Kathy Ronhaar).

"---if Mr. and Mrs. Jones hadn't met there'd be no little Johnny Jones."

Ronn Wood takes careful aim at those pesky females.

Toni Weidkamp, the eager but awkward Esther.

Dan Hardin, Megen Williams, Jani Robins, Larry Powers.

Bill Ronhaar as Sam Hooker, the spark of the show.

Tim Krahn as Murphy, the janitor who does a clean job.

The Mexican dancers perform the jarabe tapatio, the national dance of Mexico. The dancers are Beverly Bajema, John Meenk, Janis Erickson, Brian Longstreth, Bev Brann, Chuck LeCocq, Helen Harkoff, Mark Servid, Cathy Tremaine, Bill Ronhaar, Ellen Rodney, Larry Larson, Becki Elenbaas, Dan Shuler.

Right: Mr. Lambert plays "Circe."
Extreme Right: Barbi Lewis narrates a statuary show. Gwen Lange, Linda Bajema, and Connie Cogdal are seen in the Roman Beauty Salon. The troupe performed at Nooksack and Mt. Baker.

Mark Mergens, Richard Boice, Arlan Ten Kley, Don Drost, John Petras, and Tom Brown beg Circe to come to their aid. Below: Carol Graep, Linda Bovenkamp, Onalee Polinder, Arlene Nieuwsma, Shirley Bovenkamp, and Shirley Fullner, watch as the beautiful witch Circe turns the sailors into pigs.

Mike Ballieu as Mercury gives Ulysses (Gale De Jong) a rose with special powers.

The whole cast sings "Swinging on a Star" in the finale.

Foreign Language Assembly Goes on Exchange

The sailors, turned pigs, dance the pig trough twist for Circe and her maids.

Circe's (Kathy Van Winkle) Egyptian maids unwind an ancient mummy (Bev Brann) that was discovered at the Lynden City Dump.

Enthusiastic supporters wave signs at the elections assembly.

Above: "Janna Wayne" lists Cindy Taylor's qualifications for ASB vice president.

Above: Rosemary Snapper, Rich Kerschbaum, Carolyn Servid, Wayne Hersman, Bud Van Dyk, and Larry Koetje participate in a nursery rhyme skit to support Megen Williams's campaign.

Below: Bev Brann and Rosemary Snapper sing about Shirley Fullner. Barbi Lewis narrates the skit.

Below: Cheerleader candidates await their turn to try out.

The student body watches as Lynn Bosman tries out for cheerleader.

Enthusiastic cheerleader candidates perform at the elections assembly.

ASB Elections

Loyal backers carry signs for their candidates.

"Misty Moonlight" is the theme of a very enjoyable Junior-Senior Banquet.

Chris and the boys enjoy the banquet. Below: Entertainment is provided by the Joyful Sound.

Junior-Senior Banquet

Speaking for the junior class, Bill Ronhaar wishes the seniors good luck. Below, Right: Mr. Bill Swinburnson presents a monologue on learning to play the guitar.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN—Bill Ronhaar, Dixie Hamstra, Arlan Ten Kley, Bev Vander Werff, Wendy Ross, Helen Harkoff, Mark Servid, Linda Maberry. Not Pictured: Larry Larson.
